

The image shows the front cover of a book. The cover is dark, possibly black or dark brown, with a fine, grainy texture. Overlaid on this background is a repeating pattern of stylized, interlocking geometric shapes. These shapes are rendered in a lighter, textured material, possibly gold or a light-colored embossed finish. The shapes resemble a combination of 'V' and 'U' characters, or perhaps stylized letters, arranged in a way that creates a three-dimensional, woven effect. The pattern is oriented diagonally across the cover. The overall aesthetic is modern and architectural.

FOREWORD

On the pages of this book is written the story of one of the happiest years of our lives. With the passing of time, the echoes of our school life will grow fainter and fainter then die away, Gone forever will be the routine of school life, It is the hope of the Echo Staff of 1955 that, as you glance through this book in years to come, you will recapture those moments-----and the echoes will begin again.

DEDICATION

SEMPER FIDELIS; SEMPER IDEM

(ALWAYS FAITHFUL; ALWAYS READY.)

MISS ANNE JOHNSON

We, the senior class of 1955, dedicate this annual to Miss Anne Johnson whose guidance and understanding has been invaluable.

In addition to her excellent instruction in class, she has also generously given her time to extra-curricular activities.

We wish to extend our thanks and appreciation for her untiring efforts.

National Honor Society of Secondary Schools

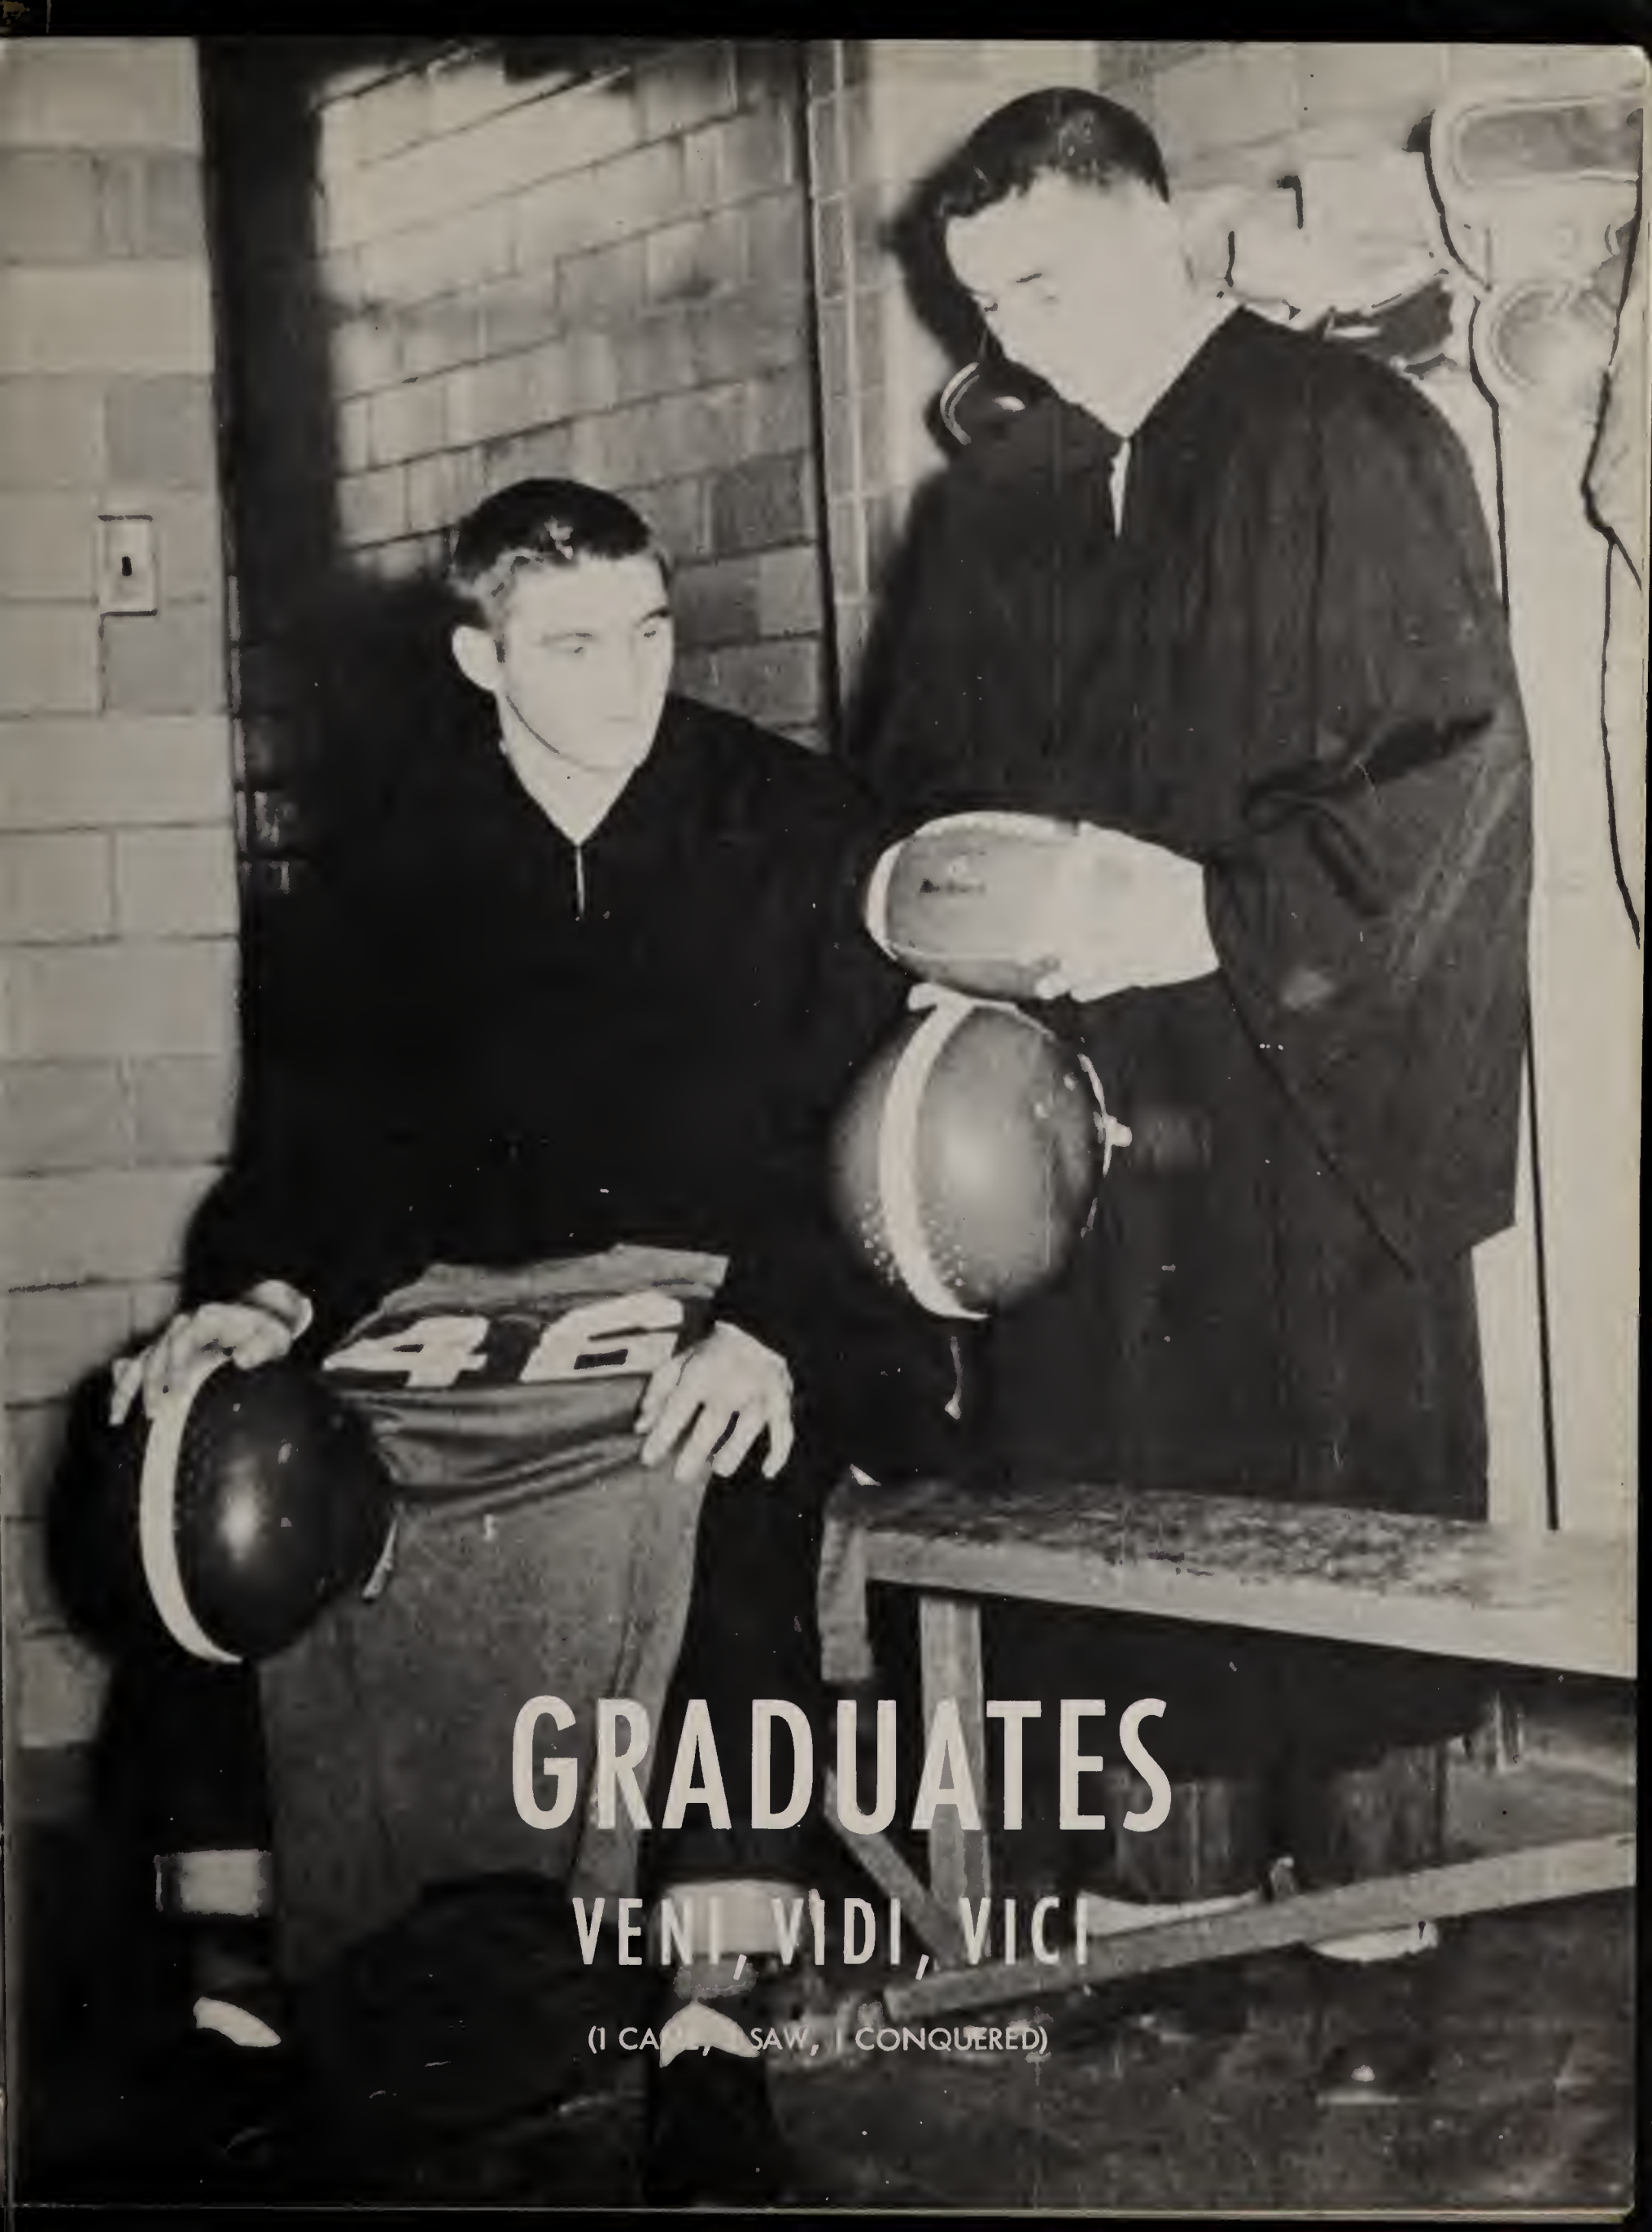

The selection of sixteen members of the Class of 1955 to active membership in the National Honor Society marks the eighteenth group of Seniors to be so honored since the institution of the Simon Kenton Chapter in 1938. Selection is made from the upper-third of the scholastic standing of the entire class. Only 15% of the class may be selected for the NHS. From the upper-third students rated each other upon the basis of leadership, character, and service. All the members of the faculty voted their preferences based upon student courtesy in manners, respect for the dignity of school instruction, and for the respect for the best traditions of the Kenton High School.

Leadership in school and community activities is achieved mainly by force of a magnetic personality, unwavering sincerity, and devotion to duty. Courtesy in manners, respect for the dignity of authority, leadership and service in student and community affairs, combined with high scholarship have always been the mark of student honor.

THOSE ELECTED:

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is a group made up of students representing the different classes and clubs. It is their responsibility to arrange the various activities, such as school dances, lyceum numbers, and other student body affairs.

There are twenty-six members this year, who are putting forth every effort to make 1955 a successful school year.

Mr. Carl Russell, the principal, is the advisor, and has the last word concerning all matters.

JUNIOR PLAY

A fine job of acting was displayed on November 18 and 19 in the Kenton High auditorium when the junior class presented a three act comedy entitled "Men Are Like Streetcars." The play reveals some of the trials and tribulations of a normal teenager's life and the not so normal lives of their parents.

Maudie, the ingenue, was portrayed by Sue Printz, while Davey, her suitor, was played by Don Hervey. Other members of the cast were: Mrs. Mason, Noreen Wolley; Mr. Mason, Lowell Cahill; Sylvia, Jean Overly; Joy, Kay Pfeiffer, Alix, Pat Buttermann; Julie, Ann Oberlitner; Lysbeth, Kay Baker; Mrs. White, Ella Kay Barclay; Mrs. Allen Sondra Thomas; Mrs. Gay, Mary Roby; Chi, Fred Arn; Jerry, Russel Frost; Ted, David Steiner; and Margaret, Nancy Shultz.

The play was under the direction of Miss Marjorie Range.

SENIOR PLAY

"Time Out For Ginger," a comedy in three acts, was presented by the Senior class of Kenton high school on Wednesday and Thursday nights, February 16 and 17, in the high school auditorium.

DiAnn Hastings takes the leading role of "problem child," Ginger, with Tanyce Spitzer and Mark Hanna as Agnes and Howard Carol, her parents. Tommy Green, Ginger's boyfriend, who has ditched her because of conduct unbecoming to a girl, is played by Paul Rickenbacher.

As the play progresses, situations become more complex. The supporting cast includes Ardythe Ault, Gloria Pfeiffer, Shirley Stober, Dick Berry, Jim Perine, and Lee Hohanson.

The production was under the direction of Miss Isabel Sloan with John Sturgeon acting as student director.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

HAIL
QUEEN PATSY

*Good luck with your friends
Patsy "Pat"*

The annual Homecoming, which was held October 15, was one of the finest ever held at Kenton High School.

Miss Patsy Pemberton reigned as Queen, while her attendants were: Gloria Pfeiffer, senior; Sharon Parrott, junior; Kay Ommert, sophomore; and Barbara Modd, freshmen.

The Queen, attired in red and her attendants in red viewed the game from their convertibles.

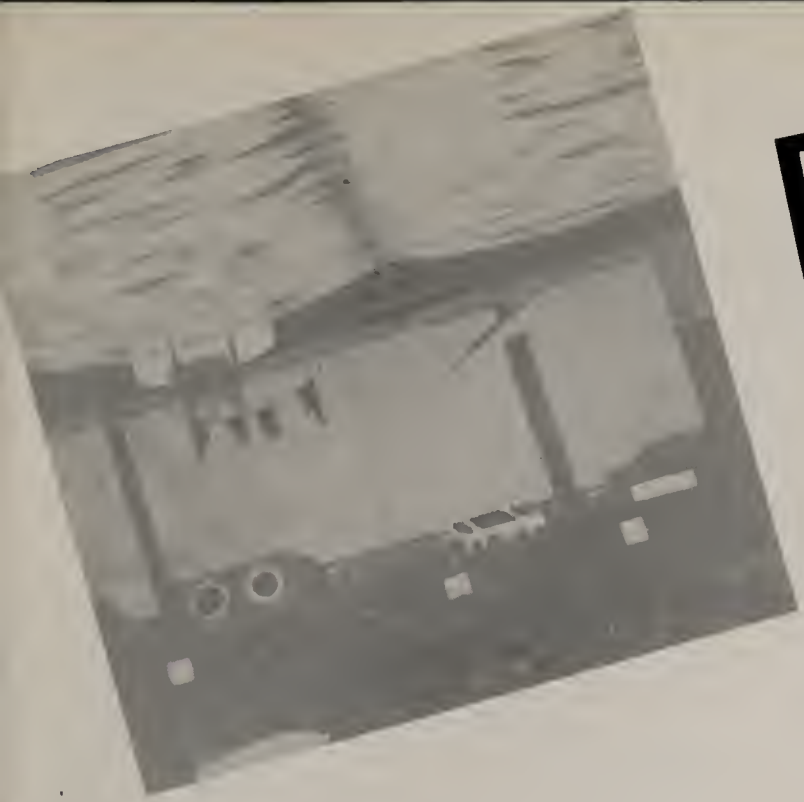

After the game, the Queen and her attendants went to the decorated gym for the Homecoming Dance.

Faith Blumenschine, Queen of '52 crowned Queen Patsy.

Miss Pemberton and her escort, J. R. Hickie led the Grand March. Mack Finch, and his orchestra provided music from 9 P. M. until midnight.
